CORPUS CHRISTI KEY ASSETS FOR BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT

- Port of Corpus Christi and the La Quinta Trade Gateway. The Port offers deepwater port facilities for bulk liquid and dry cargo as well as agricultural products.
- Foreign Trade Zone 122. The FTZ was the first in the continental U.S. to have oil refinery subzones and is one of the largest FTZs in the nation, encompassing 24,000 acres.
- Strategic location for North and South America as well as the Panama Canal.
- Low cost of doing business. Forbes ranked Corpus Christi 46th out of the 200 large metropolitan areas for low costs of doing business. Moody's Economy.com ranked Corpus Christi in best 30% for low costs.
- Highly skilled workforce in petrochemicals, heavy fabrication, water transport, aerospace, and marine research.
- Low workforce costs. Moody's Economy.com ranked Corpus Christi in the top 20% of metropolitan areas for low workforce costs.
- International airport with the adjacent Corpus Christi International Business Center which provides 50 acres for aviation-related or dependent businesses. An additional 200 acres are also available. Five airlines provide service to national business centers.
- Joe Fulton International Trade Corridor with over 1,000 acres of land for industrial development with deepwater port access along with three Class I railroads.
- Logistics options. Three Class I railroads, deepwater port, air transport, and highway. Connections to the nation and world.
- Ample land for development. This includes large parcels with significant incentives.
- Low office rents. Moody's Economy.com indicates that Corpus Christi has the lowest office rents of any metropolitan area in the nation.
- Abundant energy resources including electric, natural gas, and coal/ petcoke.
- Strong, growing aerospace sector. Over 4,300 are employed in this sector and growing.
- Diverse population, workforce and culture. Multiple ethnicities and proud cultures reflect the global orientation of Corpus Christi.
- Texas A&M University – Corpus Christi. Offering Engineering Degrees and a variety of other four year degrees supporting industry.
- Del Mar College. Three campuses in Corpus Christi one of which focuses on serving the business community with training and advanced workplace skills education.
- Harte Research Institute for Gulf of Mexico Studies. A leading research organization focused on the environmental and related social issues of the Gulf of Mexico.
- Affordable cost of living. The median price of an existing home in Corpus Christi is 60% of the national level according to the National Association of REALTORS®.
- Positive, progressive business climate backed by a pro-business, "get things done" track-record.
- Great living environment with beaches and national seashore; world-class entertainment; professional baseball, arena football and hockey; museums; three performing arts centers; state aquarium; six major hospitals including an internationally recognized children's hospital; music from the symphony to jazz; diverse cuisine; hunting, fishing, boating, and wind-surfing; and semi-tropical weather.

PORT OF CORPUS CHRISTI

The Port of Corpus Christi has been in operation since 1926 and has since become the largest port in the United States, based on total revenue tonnage, and the nation's largest energy export gateway. The Port boasts a 54-foot-deep channel, three Class I railroads - BNSF, KCS, and UP - and a location adjacent to connecting Texas highways Interstate 37 and Highway 181. With all these assets at our disposal, our mission is and always will be to leverage commerce to drive prosperity for Corpus Christi and the coastal bend.

HAZARDOUS MATERIAL DISCLOSURE

Every purchaser, seller, landlord and/or tenant of any interest in real property ("Property") is notified that prior or current uses of the Property or adjacent properties may have resulted in hazardous or undesirable materials being located on the Property. These materials may not be visible or easily detected. Current or future laws may require removal or clean-up of areas containing these materials. In order to determine if hazardous or undesirable materials are present on the Property, expert inspections are necessary and removal or clean-up of these materials will require the services of experts. Real Estate Agents are not qualified experts.

If you are a seller or landlord, it is your responsibility to ensure that the transaction documents include disclosures and/or disclaimers that are appropriate for the transaction and the Property.

If you are a purchaser or tenant, it is your responsibility to ensure that the transaction documents include provisions to permit consultation with attorneys, environmental consultants and others to make prudent investigations, and further that such inspections are conducted.

ADA DISCLOSURE

In order to ensure that all business establishments are accessible to persons with a variety of disabilities, the Americans with Disabilities Act was enacted under federal law and there are also state and local laws that may require alterations to a Property in order to allow access. Texas has enacted the Architectural Barriers Removal Act to also accommodate persons with disabilities. Real Estate Agents are not qualified to advise you if the Property complies with these laws or what changes may be necessary. You should consult with attorneys, engineers and other experts to determine if the Property is in compliance with these laws.

FLOOD PLAIN INFORMATION DISCLOSURE

It is the sole responsibility of every purchaser, seller, landlord and/or tenant of any interest in Property to independently review the appropriate flood plain designation maps proposed and adopted by federal, state, and local resources including, but not limited to, the Federal Emergency Management Association ("FEMA") and the San Antonio River Authority ("SARA"), in order to determine the potential flood risk of their Property. Real Estate Agents are not qualified to assess and cannot warrant, guarantee, or make any representations about the flood risk of a particular piece of Property. All decisions made or actions taken or not taken by a purchaser, seller, landlord and/or tenant with respect to the flood risk of a particular piece of Property shall be the sole responsibility of such party.

Information About Brokerage Services

11/2/2015

Information About Brokerage Services

Texas law requires all real estate licensees to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
 - that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
 - that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
 - any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

AS SUBAGENT: A license holder acts as a subagent when aiding a buyer in a transaction without an agreement to represent the buyer. A subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
